Praise for the novels of Jo Davis...

"Davis's new Sugarland Blue series, a spinoff of the Firefighters of Station Five series, features detectives from the Sugarland, Tenn., police department. In the strong series launch, Det. Shane Ford can't forget his brief affair with fellow officer Daisy Callahan. Though hurt and betrayed by his rejection, Daisy doesn't hesitate to offer Shane support when his best friend, NFL star Brad Cooper, is found dead from a suspected drug overdose, and Shane becomes the guardian of Brad's 16-year-old son, Drew. As Daisy helps Shane and Drew cope with Brad's death, the attraction between Shane and Daisy ignites, and she must decide whether she can trust Shane not to break her heart again. Daisy's independence and tough nature cover a heart of gold, and her romantic interludes with Shane reveal hidden depths of his character beneath the surface machismo. Explicit erotic scenes and the mystery behind Brad's death make this a satisfying, fast-paced read." Agent: Roberta Brown, the Brown Literary Agency. — Publisher's Weekly on SWORN TO PROTECT

"What's not to love about sexy men in blue with fast hands, true hearts, and the courage of their convictions? Davis certainly knows how to draw the perfect balance of vulnerability and strength, giving readers a superhero without a cape and pairing him with his perfect mate. She wraps it all up in an action novel that falls just shy of a police procedural, but with plenty of pure steamy romance and family drama. A great start to the Sugarland Blue series!" —4 ½ Stars, RT Book Reviews on SWORN TO PROTECT

"Davis' next installment in her Sugarland Blue series has a charming, easygoing detective at its center. With descriptive storytelling and sharp banter, Davis' way with words will keep the reader hooked. The passion between Taylor and Cara is hot, and their romance is sweet and sexy. Once again, Davis hits it out of the park." —4 Stars, RT Book Reviews on HOT PURSUIT
